

NSC decisions on funds relating to founders' workshop weekend and literature stock

Wordings are taken verbatim from NSC minutes (notes & actions).

4th May 2024

Ken and Mary workshop will be taking place in Manchester 17-18 May 2025 (to be confirmed). Help will be sought from the NSC for financial assistance.

PROPOSAL: For the NSC to support the committee organising the workshop financially in due course, once costs are known.

Voted unanimously in favour.

3rd August 2024

PROPOSAL: CoDA Northern Intergroup has organised a weekend in Manchester in the middle of May next year, 2025; CoDA founders Ken and Mary will be speaking. CoDA members from all over the UK will be there. The proposal is that the NSC support financially the printing of literature for sale at this and other upcoming events, paying upfront for larger literature orders, to be stored by our UK CoDA publisher and available for the May 2025 weekend, retreats, new groups, hospitals, prisons and Women's Aid groups.

Voted 9 for, 2 against, 0 abstain

PROPOSAL: To give £5000 to the workshop as per the minutes of the regional meeting:

Voted 6 for, 0 against, 4 abstain

2nd November 2024

PROPOSAL: to order CoDA literature in advance from the UK publisher, paid for by the NSC, was accepted by the NSC meeting in August this year, pending a closely costed list of the proposed order. The total cost for the order is £6,642.50.

Voted 11 for, 1 against, 0 abstain ACTION: Treasurer and Literature Secretary to work together to take this forward and provide visibility to the NSC in future.

PROPOSAL: That £3150 be made available in addition to the £5000 already committed from NSC funds to support the costs of the May Ken & Mary weekend.

Voted 10 for, 0 against, 1 abstain